

HIDDEN APEEL

One of the best-kept secrets in Boca Raton is the Skin Apeel Day Spa, a serene environment where you can relax and leave your stress and responsibilities behind.

As you enter, soft music envelops your senses and takes over. You can sample house-blend herbal teas, organic coffees, fresh vegetables, fruits and selected cheeses.

Warm, friendly and multi-talented therapists are employed to see to your every need. Skin Apeel is a specialty spa appealing to men and women of a wide variety of ages.

Some of the treatments offered include aromatic cleansing facials, Dead Sea salt wash, hair & scalp treatments and reflexology with aloe herbal wraps.

With its intimate size, this quaint Victorian-style home provides peace of mind to all its clients. Choose a treatment a la carte, or escape and spend the day enjoying a pampering, indulgent package.

Skin Apeel is located at 21301 Powerline Road, Grove Center No. 215, Boca Raton 407-852-8081.

WHITE PARTY WEEK '97

It's time again for the yearly extravaganza that is White Party Week, wherein thousands of locals and out-of-towners alike converge upon South Florida (South Beach, especially) to have fun, fun, fun and give, give,

Skin Apeel Spa,
Boca Raton

$125. An all-access pass, which gets you in to all the beach parties, outdoor fests, participating nightclubs, etc., can be had for $200. Tickets went on sale Oct. 1, so it may be too late for some events, but try anyway. Call HCN at 305-751-7775.

WE GOT GOOD POP

The Art Museum at FIU celebrates its 17th season opener with "Miami Pops! Pop Art from Miami Collections."

Inspired by the Pop Art movement of the '60's, this exhibition will showcase more than 25 works from the best in Miami's private collections.

A reflection of contemporary society, Pop Art represents American consumer culture. Some of the artists whose works will be featured in the exhibition include Robert Indiana, Jasper Johns, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist and Andy Warhol.

give to HCN (Health Crisis Network).

Those who know claim that this is the official start of "season," and because most White Party events sell out far in advance of the day-of, plan ahead.

So, when is this thing? It begins Wednesday Nov. 27 and runs through Monday Dec. 2. The big draw every year is the White Party itself, once again held at Vizcaya. Tickets for the Sunday party (6:30 p.m. - 11:30 p.m.; wear white) are

The museum is located at the University Park Campus (S.W. 107th Ave. and S.W. Eighth Street) in PC 110. The exhibit will continue through Nov. 20th. For more information call 305-348-2890.

LEVINE GOES TO LYNN

Pioneering journalist and NBC News chief economics correspondent Irving R. Levine is now Dean of International Studies at Lynn University in Boca Raton.

Levine was network television's first full-time reporter and worked with NBC for nearly half a century. For the past five years, he has served as a weekly economic commentator on CNBC.

The Rhode Island native, who received his Master's degree from Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism, will anchor the university's International Studies School, which offers undergraduate degrees in international business, international relations and international communications. u

0-9, Encaustic on canvas, 1959.
By Jasper Johns.

